PLANNING YOUR 2008 HOLIDAYS ?

The Gwent Centre have organised both Pre Welsh National and Follow-on rallies, enabling you to spend up to two weeks in our beautiful corner of Wales. You can be assured of a very warm welcome at these rallies, both within easy travelling of the Welsh National Rally venue.

Pre Welsh National Rally will be held from 15th to 21st August in the grounds of historic Caldicot Castle, just a couple of miles from the Welsh National venue.

Follow-on Rally will be held from 26th to 31st August, at Dixton Road, Monmouth, and will coincide with the Monmouth show and Raft Race, held within walking distance of the rally field.

THE GWENT CENTRE IS WAITING TO WELCOME YOU!

For further information about these rallies, please see enclosed booking forme.

BY KIND PERMISSION OF MR. DAVID BROOME

The Officers, Committee and Members of the Gwent Centre invite you to The David Broome Event Centre, Mount Ballan for the 2008 Welsh National Rally.

The venue is home to the show-jumping family of David Broome, and is serviced with excellent access for those travelling from all parts of the U.K., by the M5, M50, A449, M4 and M48 road networks. The historic towns of Chepstow and Caldicot are within easy distance of the site, as are the cities of Newport, Cardiff and Bristol.

The Rally site opens at 2pm on Thursday 21st August, and closes at 2pm on Tuesday 26th August.

You are advised to book early, as pitches in the main centre lines can only be guaranteed for bookings received before 30th June, 2008. After this date a late booking fee of £2.50 will be charged and pitches will be allocated as space allows.

Allocation details and Rally information will be sent out from 30th June, 2008

Please remember, all dogs present on the rally will be required to be fully vaccinated, and the owners to be in possession of vaccination certificates.
